ARCHITECTURAL DESCRIPTION  see continuation sheet

Describe architectural features. Evaluate the characteristics of this building in terms of other buildings within the community.

The business at 192 main Street was built in the cape style with a side gable roof. This 5x3 bay, wood frame, one story building is rectangular in plan and sits on a concrete block foundation. The building is clad with vinyl siding. The side gable roof is covered with asphalt shingles. The center entrance contains a wood, 6- panel door with a plain surround. The windows contain wood 6/6 sash with flat surrounds. The cornice is thin with a shallow molding.

A 2x2 bay, one story wing is attached to the side of the building. A two story gambrel building is attached to the rear of this building.

HISTORICAL NARRATIVE  see continuation sheet

Discuss the history of the building. Explain its associations with local (or state) history. Include uses of the building, and the role(s) the owners/occupants played within the community.

This building was built in 1965. It is owned by the Russo Family Trust, Raymond Russo trustee. The Kingston Animal Hospital is presently housed within this building.
