Said notes to be signed by the Treasurer and approved by the Selectmen. 27 voted in the affirmative and 9 in the negative.

The Town of Kingston has not escaped its full share of petitions consequent upon the extreme eagerness for the extension of lines of street railways, six petitions having been presented for consideration.

A petition from the Whitman & Plymouth Street Railway Co. for a location in the Wapping road from Plympton line and over Main street to Plymouth line, and a petition from the Brockton & Plymouth street Railway Co., for a location in Grove street, Pembroke street, and Main street, to Plymouth line, were abandoned by the petitioners from necessity, they being unable to obtain a right to pass through the towns of Halifax and Plympton.

A petition from the Brockton & Plymouth Street Railway Co., for location in Pembroke street from Pembroke line to the Northerly terminus of the Plymouth & Kingston track, was also abandoned on account of defects in the petition.

Upon petition from the Brockton & South Shore Street Railway Co. for a location in the Wapping road, Evergreen street, Summer street, Linden street, and the Landing road to Duxbury line, a location over a part of the way has been granted and it has been accepted by the said company. On petition of the Pembroke Street Railway Co. for location in Pembroke street from Pembroke line to the Plymouth & Kingston Co.'s track, a location has also been granted and accepted, and a copy of the order in each case is made a part of this report.

A petition from the Directors of the South Shore Street Railway Co. for a location from the Old Colony railroad crossing, near the station, through Summer and Linden streets, and the Landing road to Duxbury line, is not looked upon with favor, inasmuch as the streets are narrow, the Landing bridge not of sufficient strength or width, and the bridge under the Old Colony Railroad is too narrow for the safety and convenience of the ordinary travel, and no location has been granted.

A petition from the Plymouth & Kingston Street Railway Co. for the extension of their track on Summer street to the Old Colony Railroad crossing has not been granted. The existing grade crossing is dangerous enough without introducing another element which must increase the hazard. Before a track is laid there the street should be widened. This will be an expensive undertaking, and a hardship to some of the abutters. Parties have approached the Selectmen with a project for a line of track from Duxbury line through Summer street to the Old Colony crossing. This would be likely to meet with disapproval, for the same reasons as in the previous case, the street is too narrow, and to widen is impracticable.

In their orders granting locations for electric tracks the Selectmen have endeavored to save the town from expense attendant upon the construction of the tracks, and at the same time have tried to be just towards the companies. And if the terms and conditions of the contracts are lived up to in the future, this town will escape difficulties which are now being met by other towns.

The bridge across the highway at Reed's Mill in Northwest Kingston will be extended by the Street Railway Co., and as the present bridge is hardly safe for public travel, it may be wise to reconstruct the same in conjunction with the building of the new extension. This is suggested for your consideration at the annual March meeting. It will probably not be necessary to increase the appropriation in this department for this purpose. The cost of the bridge at Stoney brook, and the unusual amount expended in removing snow during the winter of 1898 and 1899, will exceed any expenditure that will be required on this bridge.

Various changes have taken place in the Poor Department. The death of Ellen Rooney at the asylum in Westboro removes one who had been an inmate of this institution for 35 years.

One person, who was an inmate for a part of the year, has recovered her health, and expense to the town has ceased.

The death of Miss Maria Haskell, who has been aided for some time; the removal of the LeBlanche child from town, seemingly reduces the number to be cared for in this department. But new cases have arisen, and the needs will be about the same. A child of Daniel Swazey is now being cared for, and Thomas Sheehan and John Crossin are receiving aid. 411 tramps, for the most part able bodied men, have been provided with food and lodgings at the tramp house during the year. It seems a wasteful expenditure to feed men at the public crib who are capable of earning enough to pay for it if opportunity is given, and provision is being made to furnish them the opportunity which they can take advantage of, or help at the County institution in Plymouth.

The net cost in the Poor Department is less than the appropriation since something more than $400 is re-imbursed by other towns.

The death of Mrs. Nancy Beytes, and of Mr. George B. Thomas; the removal of Mr. Lucas Longendycke from the town, and the discontinuance of State Aid to the families of soldiers in the Cuban War, will reduce the amount necessary to be raised for State Aid.

In most of the other departments the usual amount will suffice. In a few, the limit to the amount appropriated is so generally disregarded, that it seems of doubtful utility to make any suggestion. If entirely omitted, however, the business of the annual meeting might be delayed, and consequently the following list is submitted:

|---|--------------------|
| Contingent account, | $1,600 00 |
| Support of Poor, | 2,400 00 |
| Teachers' wages, | 4,200 00 |
| School books and supplies, | 500 00 |
| Fuel and care, | 700 00 |
| Repairs, | 500 00 |
| Incidentals, | 200 00 |
| Music, | 300 00 |
| Conveyance, | 350 00 |
| School Supervision, | 250 00 |
| Highway, | 4,000 00 |
| Special Highway, | 500 00 |
| State Aid, | 400 00 |
| Military Aid, | 100 00 |
| Soldiers' Relief, | 120 00 |
| Memorial Day services, | 100 00 |
| Care of Burying Ground, | 50 00 |
| Water Department, | 8 50 |
| Water Bond and interest, | 3,000 00 |
| Fire Department, | 700 00 |
| Town House, | 100 00 |
| Suppression of illegal traffic in liquor, | 200 00 |
| Public Library, | 800 00 |
| Total amount of list, | $21,920 00 |

To the amount of this list, if it be adopted, there must be added $900 for State Tax; $2,000 for County Tax; $3,500 for the payment of a note authorized by a vote at a town meeting held August 14, 1899, which will make $28,320.00.

From this sum may be deducted $8,000, a probable income to the town from various sources, and the tax warrant must call for the balance, or $20,500, allowing a small sum for overlay. This will make a tax rate of about $14 on each $1,000, based upon the same valuation as in 1899.

The following orders for locations of electric street railways have been issued:

An order granting to the Brockton & South Shore Street Railway Company, an original location in the Town of Kingston, Mass.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

OF THE

Town of Kingston

FOR THE YEAR

1899

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

The following report of the School Committee, together with that of the Superintendent, is respectfully submitted to the tax-payers of Kingston.

The committee organized in March by electing Rev. Zenas Crowell, chairman, and B. P. Barstow, secretary. Mr. Crowell soon resigned, much to the regret of the committee, who feel that they have lost a valued member. B. P. Barstow was elected to the office left vacant by Mr. Crowell's resignation. And at a meeting of Selectmen and School Committee, Mr. John W. Cobb was elected to fill the vacancy on the committee, and later was chosen secretary.

Miss Helen Holmes, who has served the town long and faithfully as Superintendent, resigned her position in July, and Mr. A. S. Richards was elected to that position. The committee feel that Mr. Richards is taking a lively interest in the work, and is getting it well in hand.

School Houses.

Stony Brook School House was painted in the summer vacation, and such small repairs as were needed, were made. At Wapping, the outbuildings were repaired. At the remaining school houses only minor repairs were needed.

The school rooms and buildings are now in very good repair, except Rocky Nook, which if continued in use, must have a thorough overhauling next summer.

New School House.

The school accommodations at Rocky Nook, and conditions arising therefrom, have long perplexed the School Committee. The school is too large for one teacher, with no room for an assistant. This with the difference in ages of the children, as well as the number, makes it a very hard school to manage, and the work done very unsatisfactory.

The Intermediate School was intended to relieve this condition, but only did so for a short time, owing to want of room.

So it was finally decided to ask the town for money to build a new school house at Rocky Nook. And at a special Town Meeting thirty-five hundred dollars was appropriated for that purpose. A lot was purchased on Howland's Lane, a building committee appointed consisting of Henry B. Maglathlin, Ezra S. Wright and John T. Thompson. And now we have a light, clean, roomy school house, with all modern sanitary arrangements, which we hope will be ready for use by the beginning of the spring term.

It has been the desire of the School Committee to put the old school house in thorough repair, and use it for an intermediate, or even grammar grade, and doing away with the transportation of children from this district altogether.

Recent Legislation.

Your committee wish to call attention to the law regulating employment of children, absence from school, and contagious diseases.

No child under fourteen years of age shall be employed in any factory, workshop, or merchantile establishment. No such child shall be employed in any work performed for wages or other compensation to whomsoever payable, during the hours when the public schools of the town or city in which he resides are in session, nor be employed at any work before the hour of six o'clock in the morning, or after the hour of seven o'clock in the evening.

No child under sixteen shall be employed in any factory, workshop or merchantile establishment without a schooling certificate.

Whoever employs a child under sixteen years of age, and whoever having under his control a child under such age permits such child to be employed, in violation of the above sections, shall for such offense be fined not more than fifty dollars; and whoever continues to employ any child in violation of either of the above sections, after being notified by a truant officer, or an inspector of factories thereof, shall for every day thereafter that such employment continues be fined not less than five nor more than twenty dollars.

No child who is a member of a household in which a person is sick with small-pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever or measles, or a household exposed to contagion from a household as aforesaid, shall attend any public school during such sickness, or until the teacher of the school has been furnished with a certificate from the Board of Health of the town or city, or from the attending physician of such sick person, stating in case of small-pox, diphtheria or scarlet fever, that a period of at least two weeks, and in case of the measles, a period of at least one week has elapsed since the recovery, removal or death of such person, and that the danger of the conveying of such disease by such child has passed.

The age of attendance is now required from seven to fourteen, and the entire time the schools are in session.

A pupil who is not present during at least half of a session shall be marked and counted absent for that session.

Every habitual school offender, that is every child under fourteen years of age who persistently violates the reasonable regulations of the school which he attends, or otherwise persistently misbehaves therein, so as to render himself a fit subject for exclusion therefrom, upon complaint by a truant officer, and conviction thereof may be committed, if a boy, at the discretion of the court to a County Truant School for a period not exceeding two years, or to the Lyman school for boys, and, if a girl, to the State Industrial school for girls, unless such child is placed on probation.

Any person having under his control a child between seven and fourteen years of age who fails for five day sessions, or ten half day sessions within any period of six months while under such control, to cause such child to attend school, the physical or mental condition of such child not being such as to render his attendance at school harmful or impracticable, upon complaint by a truant officer, and conviction thereof, shall forfeit and pay a fine of not more than twenty dollars. Any person who induces or attempts to induce any child to absent himself unlawfully from school, or employs or harbors while school is in session any child unlawfully absent from school, shall forfeit and pay a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

There has been very little trouble from failure to comply with any of the above regulations the past year. The truant officers have had very little to do. And especially the committee wish to thank the parents for the kindly spirit shown in aiding the efforts of the committee in preventing the spread of contagious diseases among the children. Very much more needs to be done, and greater care exercised in this direction.

REPORT OF THE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE BUILDING COMMITTEE.

To the School Committee:

The new school house at Rocky Nook, now in process of erection, as planned, is intended to be sufficiently spacious to accomodate eight-five pupils, which is as large a number, even when properly graded, as two teachers may be expected to have in charge.

The structure has well lighted rooms with ceiling 12 feet in height. Of the two school rooms, one is 30 by 36 feet, and the other 26 by 26 feet. Both of these rooms have separate entrances for the boys and girls, and have likewise separate ways to the basement.

The part of the basement not required by the heating and ventilation arrangements, and for storage of fuel, will be divided into two parts for providing the boys and girls separate rooms for recreation in bad weather.

The system of heating and ventilation approved by the District Inspector, as required by law, it is believed, will prove very effective. Fresh air is admitted by a duct from outside, and passing in contact with a hot furnace is heated for admission to the school room, while the air in the room on becoming vitiated goes out, into and up a heated chimney. Thus a complete circulation is maintained, keeping the air pure.

Of the $3,500 appropriated, there has been expended as follows: Lot, $300; plans, $35; heating and ventilation contract, $321; building contract, $1,600; grading, $2.70; insurance, $34.50; leaving a balance of $1,206.80.

Change of Teachers.

With the close of the year 1898 Miss Emma D. Draper completed a long and honorable career as teacher of the Stony Brook School. Her place was filled by the election of Miss Inez E. Bates. At the close of the school year Miss Sarah A. Eldridge and Miss Etta C. Cole, who had so successfully conducted the Center Primary School for several years, concluded their services; and in September Miss Stella B. Baker and Miss L. Winnie Dunbar took charge. At Rocky Nook Miss Blanche Minot resigned in June, and Mrs. Frances I. Bagnall resumed control. Finally, Miss Alice M. Abbott, after serving faithfully as assistant in the High School for more than three years resigned December 1. Miss Julia Clarke Carleton was chosen to fill the position.

Teachers' Meetings.

As has been the wont for some years past teachers' meetings have been held regularly on the first Wednesday of each month, with invariably good attendance. At these meetings we have talked over the work to be done, and discussed ways and means for perfecting it. As giving an opportunity to the teachers for meeting one another frequently and discussing their problems, and of receiving friendly criticism, instruction, encouragement and inspiration, I deem the teachers' meetings invaluable.

State Inspection.

Early in May our schools were thoroughly inspected by two agents of the State Board of Education, Dr. John T. Prince and Mr. Henry T. Bailey. After they had been through the schools and had seen them at work, the buildings, apparatus, etc., a meeting of the teachers was called in the Intermediate Schoolhouse, where both gentlemen addressed us instructively and interestingly. In regard to this inspection, Dr. Prince has since written me, among other things, that he was "impressed by the generally faithful and conscientious work on the part of the teachers." Since the teacher is the most important factor in the school, more important than books or apparatus, this word from an authority is very significant. Dr. Prince, on the other hand, wrote, "The schools of Kingston are not so good that they will not for some time to come tax your best efforts to make them as good as they ought to be." We may read in this a wise and wholesome exhortation.

High School Course.

At the beginning of the present academic year a new course of study was adopted for the High School. In preparing this course three ends were constantly kept in mind: first, to make the step from the grammar to the High School as easy and natural as possible; secondly, to meet a growing demand for more instruction along the lines of commerce and science; and thirdly, to give a larger degree of freedom to the pupil in the choice of his studies. Toward the accomplishment of the first end, several ninth grade studies were introduced into the first year. By doing this we have in part made good the lack of a ninth grammar grade also. American history and physiology were put into the first year so that the pupils who leave the school after one or two years will not go away without some knowledge of these branches. Secondly, a larger amount of commercial training is offered by introducing more book-keeping, commercial geography and commercial law. And to enlarge the scope of our scientific studies, zoölogy and astronomy were given places in the course. Lastly, the whole course was so arranged that, beginning with the second year, the pupil is given an increasing amount of freedom in selecting his studies. Only those branches which by common consent are deemed essential for all classes of pupils, are absolutely prescribed. In granting this freedom we recognize the different tastes and aptitudes of the individual pupils; and we imply our belief in their honesty and common sense, when given a reasonable share of the responsibility in the matter of their education. The elective system is being adopted by scores of high schools throughout the United States; and wherever it has been given fair trial it has given excellent satisfaction. Our new course is as follows:—

The Elementary Schools.

The work in the Elementary Schools has, for the most part, been along the old lines, with no radical changes in the courses of study. Since I took charge of these schools I have constantly endeavored to emphasize the essentials of education, the first principles, so to speak. It seems to me to be far sounder sense to teach our young children a few things well than to tax their minds with a multitude only superficially taught. There is a crying need of more simplicity and more naturalness in this most important department of popular education.

In reading I have insisted upon the necessity of more care in the matter of articulation, more regard to rendering the thought so that the listener may get whole words and whole ideas, and not "mumbled, mangled morsels" of both ideas and words. The growing bad habit of careless articulation is one of the first criticisms an Englishman or a Frenchman, visiting our American schools, has to offer. We ought to pay more attention to the rendering of a reading lesson than is the fashion these days. I am not pleading for elocution—but merely for the good habit of careful articulation and a decent rendering of written English orally. Our children should be given only the best literature to read, and then be taught to read it—to feel it, to understand it, and to deliver it orally so that others can feel and understand and enjoy it, too. Really good literature will stand being carefully studied and worked over more than is the present day rule. I cannot exaggerate the importance of inculcating the habit of carefulness in our young children, for the habits formed in childhood follow us to the grave.

In the matter of spelling, I have urged the teachers to teach spelling by every means and method possible, direct and indirect. Years ago the spelling lessons used to be mostly oral; nowadays the tendency is to make them mostly written. Either method, to the exclusion of the other is a mistake; we should employ both and let eye and ear help in the correct formation of words.

For instruction in writing, the Shaylor vertical round hand writing books have been put into the schools, and are proving very satisfactory.

In arithmetic I have tried to strengthen the course, rather than to change it. In this branch also, the work is not as careful as I should like to see it, but it is improving. Arithmetic is an exact science and should be treated as such. Accuracy should be striven for first of all—accuracy meaning straightforward, logical reasoning and proper arrangement of written work, as well as the correct result. It seems to me that the fashion of teaching the how to the exclusion of the why, is demoralizing, from a pedagogical point of view. Again, we have far too little mental drill in arithmetic. We are weakening the minds of our children mathematically speaking, by allowing so many helps, where the mind should do its own work, and that right quickly. Let me emphasize this idea,—our children need all the drill possible in practical, mental problems.

In the other branches we have followed the courses of study already in vogue, and the progress has been good. In history and geography this is especially true.

The Public Library.

One of the most important factors in the public education of any community is the public library. Now, Kingston is blessed with an excellent library in a beautiful building; and I wish here to urge upon parents and teachers the importance of the children's using it properly. Collateral with some of the studies pursued in the High School, scores of books, thousands of pages, have been read; and from this reading what of good shall come, no one can tell. It is my intention to carry this collateral reading idea down even to the lowest grades, with the help of the teachers and the parents. To this end, a graded list of books, suitable for children of all ages, is about to be brought out. It is hoped that this list will be of use to parents, especially in directing the reading of their children. A large number of the best books in all lines of human knowledge and endeavor will be included in this list. In using it, let us remember that some books are to be read quickly, some slowly, and some to be studied and pondered over. If we look carefully to the matter of our children's reading we shall be building for the future very mightily. How the good books we read in childhood have influenced us we all know. Moreover, a reading habit is the most cultivating habit a boy or girl can possibly form. From a public point of view, as well, it is an unquestioned fact that that community whose members read, is invariably more prosperous, more cultured, and happier than that community whose members do not read. The value of the public library to the education of the community, then, cannot be overestimated.

Music.

Miss Batchelder reports that despite the disadvantages to progress in music that the change of classes necessarily brings with it, the year has been one of satisfactory results. Not only are the children learning good music in the songs they sing, and how to read common music, too, but they are being cultivated, refined, made better by the mysterious power of music. It speaks well for the progress of our schools in this line that they are now doing nearly as advanced work as the corresponding grades in places where music has been taught far longer.

Drawing.

If the good to be derived from the study of music is great that to be derived from drawing is also. Drawing cultivates and refines the heart of the child, and it trains the eye to see and the hand to do. Hence, drawing is a very practical study. In a word, it is an unquestioned fact that drawing is a very important study in the modern curriculum; and without an adequate training in it, a young man or young woman is handicapped, from an educational standpoint. I, therefore, recommend the employment of a special teacher in drawing; I will say at the same time that one may be had at a comparatively slight expense. I do not make this recommendation because our regular teachers cannot teach drawing somewhat, they can and do. I make it because it is impossible for any corps of regular teachers to do adequate work in this branch without the direction and inspiration of a special teacher—it is impossible for any set of teachers, alone, to give the instruction in drawing that modern education demands. I say our teachers are doing something in drawing; in some of our schools quite fair results have been obtained, results that show that there is ability and desire ready to be trained up. But our children are not getting one-quarter the good out of the study as if taught in the most approved way. I heartily recommend, then, that our next forward step be in this direction: firmly believing that the small expense involved will dwindle and wither when the good results are once learned.

School-room Decoration.

The High School has been especially blessed with gifts this year. In the spring the High School Association presented a beautiful bust of Abraham Lincoln, than which no more fitting decoration could grace an American school-room. In September Captain Walter S. Sampson, who has heretofore very generously remembered Stony Brook School, sent the High School three magnificent pictures—"Mount Vernon," "Stratford from Memorial Theatre" and "Anne Hathaway's Cottage." A little later the same school was again favored, this time with fine portraits of four of our American authors—Longfellow, Whittier, Emerson and Holmes—from Mrs. Abbie Jones. For all these beautiful and appropriate gifts I have expressed most hearty thanks. He who gives to decorate a public school-room is truly a public benefactor, for he is making the daily surroundings of scores of children brighter, happier, more beautiful.

Co-operation.

I am glad to note a good increase in the number of visits to our schools. It shows that there is a healthy public interest, and that it is growing. I would urge on the parents and the public generally the good effects that may come from the custom of visiting the schools. It brings the parent and the teacher together, enabling each to see the other's standpoint, thus preventing many misunderstandings; it creates a feeling of co-operation between parent and teacher in the education of the child; finally, it shows the child that both his parents and his teacher are engaged in the same work, which goes on at home and at school, simultaneously,—his physical, mental and moral education. It is needless to say that whenever the parents or the general public are able to visit the schools they will be thrice welcome there.

Conclusion.

In conclusion I wish to thank the members of the School Committee for their confidence and support, which have made my work a pleasure. I am grateful to the parents and the public also for their sympathy and good will; and to the teachers, to whom the greatest credit for whatever good comes to our children from going to school, I acknowledge sincere obligations. Lastly, I would not forget the pupils themselves, who have, without a single exception, shown me respect, good will, and a desire to do what is right.

Your obedient servant,

ANSEL S. RICHARDS,
Superintendent.

THE REV. SAMUEL F. SMITH, D. D.

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing.
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love.
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song!
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,—
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God to thee,
Author of liberty,—
To thee we sing.
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.
