Appropriation,	$3,000 00

In general, the judgment shown by the heads of departments in their estimate of the sums required to meet the expenses for the year has been well sustained. Extraordinary expenditures in a few cases, however, have caused an overdrawing of the sum provided.

To the ordinary expenses charged to the Contingent Account there has been charged $100 for the burial of a soldier and a soldier's widow, which sum will be refunded by the State; and damages of three different persons, amounting to $416.00 for injury sustained from defects in our highways.

The appropriation for the use of the Highway Commission was $4,000.00. To this must be added the sum of $634.79, the excise tax assessed upon the Brockton & Plymouth Street Railway Co. The excess of expenditures in this account was occasioned by the necessity for repairs upon the bridge on Pembroke street near the house of Victor Gauquier. The bridge was found to be dangerous to public travel and it was thought not wise to give further opportunity for demands on account of injury upon our highways and concrete has been substituted for rotten timber at an expense of about $400.00. It is quite evident that a larger sum must be provided for this department. There are sections of highway that must be attended to or further injury may follow.

The excess in the Water Department must be attributed in part, at least, to necessary repairs upon the reservoir. As this was a case of absolute necessity it was considered advisable to overdraw the appropriation rather than to call a special town meeting which would add to the expense, cause delay, and perhaps great inconvenience to water takers. This account should be credited also with iron pipe and oil which was used by the Highway Department, valued at $56.25. Notwithstanding the rigid rules of this department there seems to be a reluctance to pay the assessments for water which leads occasionally to seeming discrepancies in accounts of the department.

The aggregate of appropriations for school purposes for the year just passed, including the salaries of Superintendent and Physician, was $12,060.00. This sum augmented by receipts from the state and from other sources and used for school purposes gives the sum of $14,145.91. The sum of $14,305.45 has been expended. This sum is equal to about 60 per cent. of all the money raised by taxation for town purposes for the year 1915. In this, the Town of Kingston is no exception, for the same conditions exist throughout the state and surely our school system has become a serious financial problem. The demands made by inspectors during the past year have added to the expenses, and receipts from the state are less by $200.00 than in 1914. The sum of $30.00 which was omitted in the settlement with the street railway company for the year 1914 has been added to this account which is the cause of the difference between the sum indicated by the report of the School Committee and that of the Treasurer.

There has been expended during the year and charged to the Poor account $2,779.41 and there has been paid into the town treasury the sum of $403.75 by other municipalities for support of persons residing within this town but who have a settlement elsewhere, and there is still due about $300.00. One quarter of the appropriation for this department was expended for the care and support of one person, now gone to his rest. As one after another of our elderly people pass away, who have been recipients of aid, on account of age and its consequent infirmities, others have called for aid and are adding large sums to our expenses in this department and in some cases by reason of misconduct rather than the results of age. It is true that the burdens that are being put upon us by legislation are frequently unnecessary and grievous to be borne. But it will not do to blame the Administration for all our woes. The plain truth is this, that there are too many non-producers and too much extravagance in both our personal and public demands, together with a general repugnance to the performance of duties which must be met in order to perfect our natural resources.

Our old-fashioned methods of "manual training" are fast becoming obsolete and the modern training school seems to be a poor substitute.

Under the head of Suppression of Crime about $500.00 has been expended and $200.00 has been paid in fines. 28 arrests have been made for drunkenness, illegal sales of liquor and other misdemeanors. Mr. Louis F. Bartz was appointed a special officer early in the year and he should be credited with faithful performance of the duty assigned to him and with the improved conditions in the southern part of the town to which the inhabitants will readily testify. The office of a policeman is certainly no sinecure and few are willing to assume its duties.

Financial

In the year 1916 I have used a total of $1,142.00 which includes labor, gravel and coal. It has been used as follows:

Scraping in spring,	$35 00
Carting sand and labor for oiling,	75 00
Covered Maple Avenue, one-half stone and one-half gravel,	200 00
Elm Street, stone road,	100 00
Other repairs on Elm and Pond Streets,	95 00
Howlands Lane, during the year,	45 00
Patching and other repairs, including filling in car tracks between the Plymouth Line and Maple Avenue,	125 00
Cleaning gutters,	71 00
Other repairs,	35 00
Carting the sand from Plymouth Line to James Hall's Corner for the piece of road built on Main Street by Mr. Small,	296 00
Pembroke Street, for Rogerson,	65 00
Total,	$1,142 00

Recommendation

I would call your attention to the need of more money for our highways. With the great increase of travel it seems impossible to improve the conditions without a larger appropriation. Our sidewalks are in an unsafe condition and the fencing along our highways is very poor. To have these conditions improved I would recommend that the town appropriate $5,000 for highways and $500 for sidewalks.

Respectfully submitted,

WARREN S. NICKERSON.

Kingston, Feb. 12, 1916.

THIRTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WATER COMMISSIONERS

The Board of Water Commissioners beg leave to submit the following report for the year 1915:

Reservoir

Early in the month of April after the ice had disappeared from the Reservoir the water was drawn off that an inspection might be made to determine the cause of leakage. The bottom of the Reservoir appeared to have settled and a crack extended one-half way around circumference and within a few inches of the side walls. These cracks evidently were the cause of the leakage, as upon investigation the cement was found to have disintegrated wherever these cracks appeared. In the judgment of the Water Commissioners and the Selectmen, present at the inspection, this condition would probably grow worse rapidly and it was decided, in the interest of economy, to repair the damaged bottom. This was done by covering the old bottom with a coating of cement four and one-half inches thick at shallow places and running irregularly to nine inches in settled portion of the old bottom. The result of this outlay proved very satisfactory, no leakage is apparent, and the number of hours pumping is reduced. The cost of this work, tabulated elsewhere, includes labor preparing the reservoir bottom for the masons, trimming the roadway, teaming, etc., also the electric power to run one pump for the time the water was shut off from the reservoir.

Extension and Maintenance

During the year 15 new services were connected to the mains, adding seventeen new water takers to the list; 560 active services now in use.

Service repairs were numerous and required attention pretty nearly daily all through the summer and fall months. The ever increasing necessity of repairs to services, gates and hydrants must be apparent to all acquainted with the destructiveness of age on material. With slight added expense, the practice of placing gate valve on branch pipe connecting hydrant with mains has been adopted in all newly installed and repaired hydrants. This gives control for repair purposes and minimizes the difficulty when hydrants are broken by collision as also it avoids the inconvenience of shutting off large sections of water supply. All hydrants were painted a second coat, having only received one the summer previous. Also the pumping station buildings were painted a second coat. Wood work on roof of Reservoir was painted. Small bushes and inflammable growths were cut away from the banks of the Reservoir to reduce liability of loss by fire.

Meters.

During the year two meters of 250 gallon P. M.* capacity were purchased and connected to pumps to determine, if possible, how much water was being pumped. All figuring, based upon the claim of pump manufacturers of 240 gallons P. M. with reasonable allowance for slippage, resulted in a show of an enormous per capita consumption and leakage. But the meters show a more reasonable figure and on a 24-hour run instead of 240 gallons P. M., the average P. M. shown by meter was 121 gallons. Since these results were determined both the pump and meter men have declared for the correctness of their machines, and while it is not possible at this writing to conclude the story, the difference between the claims of the pump manufacturers for the capacity of their pump and the results shown by meter measure are too great to permit indifference. In the interest of economy this matter will be thoroughly investigated, as every gallon of water added per minute to the present results means a proportionate reduction in the electric power bill.

*Per Minute.

Meters for Manufacturing and Domestic Services.

Requests made early in the year for metered service, and the growing desire to know more about the consumption of water for business purposes and household use, decided the Commissioners to purchase and install a limited number of meters. Investigation by the Commissioners and the Superintendent decided upon the Empire Meter. The cost of these was slightly more than some other types, but their simplicity of mechanism would, we believe, make them cheapest in the end. Fourteen Empire Meters were purchased. Ten of these were installed and one Pittsburg Meter. These, together with five others previously in use, make 16 meters all told now in service.

Two readings only have been taken, each of three months intervals, but the results of these readings show very surprising figures and indicate that the money expended in meters will supply some very profitable facts for future use. In several cases the meter reading for three months shows the consumption for that period to have exceeded the amount allowed for a year at the minimum price as per present meter rates, and the present rate paid by the consumer for one year to be about one-fifth of the amount of the bill made from the meter reading and present meter rates. It seems to the Commissioners only fair to say to the smaller water takers that with sufficient data at hand the Board will endeavor to adjust these cases with due consideration of the rights of all parties concerned.

Recommendation

The condition of the main pipe from the north end of Crescent Street to the Plymouth Line has gradually grown worse and has been the cause of much complaint from the householders as it is impossible to flush from one hydrant nozzle without cutting off the supply for most of the services on that line.

We respectfully recommend that a six-inch line of pipe be connected to six-inch main at property of Arthur Pierce and extend through Main Street to Plymouth Line, and that the sum of $2,500.00 be appropriated for this purpose.

With the tools acquired by the department during the last two years we are able to regrind hydrant and gate valves, thus saving time and money. Otherwise the leaky hydrants would need to be shipped to the maker for repairs at an expense nearly that of a new hydrant or else be relegated to the scrap pile.

The ever increasing amount of this and general service repairs, indicated by the experience of the year just passed, together with the fact that the station yard is almost barren of four-inch and six-inch pipe, seems to the Commissioners to demand a more liberal appropriation and we recommend for general maintenance the sum of $3,000.00.

NOTE.

In 1914 report of Water Collections, the amount, $6,334.39
 was an error and should have been 6,313.64
 Also amount shown by Treasurer to have been turned over $6,194.53 should have been 6,214.53

This left a deficit in contention of $99.11
 An understanding having been reached, and this amount turned over to Treasurer, balances the accounts for 1914.

The School Committee beg leave to submit the following report:—

For the safety of the pupils fire extinguishers have been placed in all the school buildings, all outside doors have been made to open outward, a fire escape installed at the High school, and all State requirements met in respect to safeguarding the lives of the pupils.

In May, Mr. E. G. Loring tendered his resignation as Superintendent of the District in which Kingston is included, same to take effect August 1. Mr. George Allen Coe, who was chosen by the District to fill the vacancy, comes to the position highly recommended, and since assuming the duties of the office has shown marked ability in all matters pertaining to school administration.

Several hundred dollars less than was anticipated was received from the State Fund so that the finance account shows a small deficit.

We recommend the following appropriations for the necessary expenses for the current year:—

Teachers' wages,	$6,000 00
Books and supplies,	600 00
Fuel and care,	2,500 00

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Committee and Citizens of Kingston:—

I herewith present my first annual report of the activities and condition of the Kingston schools.

The fall term opened with six new teachers which would be a considerable strain on any school organization employing the number of teachers we do. That this strain was successfully met is a credit to all concerned. Since then two changes have occurred. Miss Ethel A. Luther of the Rocky Nook third grade resigned in October and was succeeded by Miss Heath. Miss Florence de N. Anderson resigned her position as teacher of English at the High school at Christmas time and has been succeeded by Miss Siebert. The school directory gives a complete list of the teachers as on December 31, together with their qualifications.

The adoption by the School Committee of a set of by-laws in August was a decided advance step in school administration. Copies are available for those who wish them and we believe that they will make for clearer understanding of powers, duties and privileges of all connected with the schools in any way.

Another advance was secured by the superintendency union district hiring a clerk so as to make it possible for the superintendent to devote himself more fully to supervision of the schools, study of their needs and planning in accordance with the results of that study. This is in accord with the best business practice.

Courses of study in arithmetic, language and spelling for the elementary schools were put into effect early in the term, to be followed later by others. The governing considerations in laying down these courses were the order, nature and quantity of material best suited to the child at a given stage of development, and the elimination of whatever could not be seen to have sufficient practical value. As state-wide courses of study are being proposed these are merely tentative, though the indications are that any changes necessary will be in the direction already taken of simplification and practicality in a broad sense. This tendency will allow us more time for the development of such work in the elementary schools as physical education, memory and sense training, and nature study. These things are fundamental to successful living and are absolutely practicable without neglecting any of the really valuable elements of the traditional school subjects.

A year ago Mr. Merrill was advised that as Kingston had not recently sent any students to the colleges represented in the New England College Entrance Association our high school had lost its certification privilege to those colleges. This was regrettable but no blame can be attached to the school, its quality of instruction or its instructors. This is clearly evidenced by the statement of the College Entrance Board's secretary that had he known that we had students ready and desiring to enter any of their colleges the board would not have taken the action it did. No effort was made by them, however, to find out whether or not this was the case. Meanwhile the people of Kingston need not lose faith in the school. The instruction given is of high order and the certification privilege is so well earned that the effort being made to regain it should be crowned with early success.

Our physical equipment seems large enough for immediate needs as the enrolment in the lower grades is slightly under the average for the past two or three years. General repairs and improvements have been made that materially add to the value and usefulness of the school properties. Repairs at Howland's Lane and Silver Lake placed both these buildings in good condition for the year's work. The lawn at the Rocky Nook school since grading and seeding, makes that an attractive piece of town property. The fitting up of an office and storeroom at the Lower Center Primary school provides at once for the proper care of supplies and an opportunity for the townspeople to conveniently interview the superintendent. No improvement was quite so needed as the fire escape at the high school. The danger in case of fire or panic was considerable because of the nature of the stairs and the lack of room for large numbers to make rapid exit at the front doors. Too much has been invested in the lives of the pupils for us not to appreciate this safety provision. By this and the further installation of fire extinguishers the committee has met all the requirements of the state authorities as concerns fire protection.

The last legislature passed a law providing for a University Extension Department under the State Board of Education. This department has been established and I commend it to all who seek the advantages of further study but cannot afford to leave home or present position. The fees for courses are trifling. Further information may be obtained from the State Board of Education direct or your superintendent will be glad to advise with anyone about these courses or give other help within his power.

Immediately following you will find three statistical tables. Tables A and B explain themselves. Table C shows the distribution of pupils according to age and grade on December 31. It shows 11 per cent. of our elementary pupils to be two or more years behind their grades. The causes are mainly unfamiliarity with English and mental deficiency.

I shall appreciate conferences with parents and others regarding any phase of the schools or education and shall be glad to both give and receive suggestions that may be of help.

In closing let me thank the members of the committee, the teachers and the townspeople for their many courtesies and support.

GEO. ALLEN COE, Superintendent.

REPORT OF SCHOOL PHYSICIAN

During the year ending December 31, 1915, the school physician made 13 calls and a total of 516 individual examinations. Nine examinations were made of those presenting employment tickets and the required certificates issued.

The following diseases, or diseased conditions were found to exist:—

Decayed teeth, 329.

Enlarged tonsils, 78.

Adenoids, 14.

Pediculosis, 9.

Nits, 17.

The usual notices have been sent in all cases.

The work of the past six years is shown in the following table:

	1910	1911	1912	1913	1914	1915
Total examinations,	689	871	621	520	642	516
Decayed teeth,	311	346	343	354	362	329
Enlarged tonsils,	96	100	117	138	125	78
Impetigo contagiosa,	6	7	3	7	2	0
Pediculosis,	5	73	8	6	12	9
Nits,				32	14	17
Adenoids,	3	6	9	18	22	14

The most striking feature of this year's report is the marked decrease in the number of cases of both Decayed Teeth and Enlarged Tonsils. It is felt that the number of these cases should be further reduced as the percentage is still very high. This is also true in regard to the number of cases of head lice.

Respectfully submitted,

School Physician.
